The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

County Probation Department worker Mrs. Ruth Green, one of the subjects of the article we ran in last week's newspaper having to do with the snatching of the Karl Sanders children from their Spring Valley home, and subsequently creating a scar in that family's life that will never be healed, paid me a visit last week.

An attractive lady of approximately 45 years of age with greying hair, she said that she had been in Probation Department employ for the past 20 years.

The first thing she demanded to know was why I had singled her out by name, there being two other case workers involved, and why I had referred to her by color in the article. She then demanded that I admit that I did it because I am prejudiced!

She accused me of lying in the matter of the Sanders story and angrily charged that I had not taken pains to get the facts.

She is, by her own admission, a veteran of 20 years and knows as well as I that this department, some of whom are social parasites, have protected themselves by convincing lawmakers that a shroud of secrecy is mandatory to "protect the innocent" and to make the department work more effective. Mrs. Green knows, as well as I, that the only information obtainable can come from the affected family and those neighbors without an axe to grind because no information piled into files by case workers may be made public . . . and in face of this she demands that I get the "facts" from the files.

I presented the facts and she knows it. I don't know what the files show, nor does anyone else, but if they show other than our presentation of the case on which we have worked off-and-on for a year, they have lied.

That less than perfection has been achieved in the Probation Department would perhaps be best indicated by the fact that while Mrs. Green stated emphatically that she was a visitor in my office as a private citizen, she was, in fact, visiting me on County time and driving a county auto which she parked across the street from the window of my office. She left the vehicle at 11:20 a.m. Thursday, October 8 and re-entered it at 11:50 a.m. I checked the department's office and they assured me that Mrs. Green was working that day. Either Mrs. Green felt that she could browbeat me at taxpayers' expense after making the trip to this office in a taxpayers' auto, or she was here at the express direction of the department's chief, Charles T. G. Rogers. Rogers, the following day, when I was able to find him in the office, said that Mrs. Green was making her visit on her own time . . . an admission which indicates that a more careful control of personnel is in order in the Probation Department.

Mrs. Green, a member of the government function by which the two little Sanders children were snatched up and carried away, screaming, without so much as a fair warning, accused me of "stooping to a new low in journalism" for reporting the story in the form we used. She also accused me of being un-American in referring to her as "colored"—but certainly not as un-American as seizing children from a happy home Gestapo-fashion.

I think Mrs. Green has her values mixed. The day may come when it is unconstitutional for a reporter to describe a person by height, by color of skin, or color of eyes or hair, or even by sex . . . but that day is not here yet.

Contrariwise, it is unconstitutional for police-state type workers to snatch youngsters away from their natural parents. They are able to do this with impugnity only because of the shroud of secrecy which protects them when they lie. I am yet to be convinced that a court order has actually been obtained before the

Grossmont Hospital Turned Down On Bid For State-Federal Building Funds

The Grossmont Hospital District's request for state and federal aid for doubling the capacity of the tax-supported hospital has bogged down amid 94 other applications for $116 millions worth of aid. Money available amounted to $4,379,000. Grossmont asked for $549,000.

Application was made to the State Hospital Advisory Council which was meeting in Los Angeles last week for dispersement of hospital funds. The Council matches state and Federal funds with an equal amount of local funds. Had the Grossmont request been met it would have channeled $1,095,000 in federal and state funds to join with $549,000 Grossmont now has on hand. The total of $1,644,000 would have been used to construct another wing to house 143 beds.

Louis Peelyon, Grossmont Hospital administrator said that he was disappointed that there was not enough money to spread to all the state's needs, and he would recommend to the governing board of the hospital that another application be made next March 15 when another dispersal would be considered by the State Hospital Advisory Council. If that fails, said Peelyon, he would ask the board to decide whether or not to attempt to raise funds locally for any expansion deemed necessary at that time.

Preliminary plans had already been prepared by Pierra and Luckman, designers of the initial development.

The district has presently approximately $600,000 in cash on hand. At an election in June, voters decided 8 to 1 to permit the board to earmark the funds for new construction.

The board will hear Peelyon's recommendations at the next meeting August 21.

School Edition Set For Next Week

Very soon all parents will turn their attention to Johnny and Susan for school because opening day is just around the month-end corner.

In Lemon Grove, schools open Tuesday, September 10 (Monday is Admission Day, a state holiday).

All things that go to make the summer-long vacationer into a beaming, well-dressed little angel must be acquired in the next couple of weeks, and that's where the REVIEW comes into the picture.

Next week this newspaper will publish its annual Back-To-School edition and most Lemon Grove merchants, geared to the occasion will have their fine-but-reasonable merchandise listed.

We predict Lemon Grove will be a busy community next week after the distribution of the Annual Lemon Grove Review Back-to-School edition . . . but our business firms will be ready.

Come, enjoy the friendly attention that can come only from a small town business firm. Shop in Lemon Grove—And on Friday evenings till 9.

Manager Halcomb said that he had nothing definte planned for his future at the present time.

DORNA SESSIONS WINS TRIP TO DISNEYLAND

Disneyland is still the magic word among the small-fry set and this newspaper has nearly 300 letters to prove it.

Top letter of the big stack was that written by Dorna Sessions, 9239 Carthay Circle, Spring Valley, and she will receive a pre-paid trip to Disneyland August 20.

Dorna is the 9½ year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Sessions and her father is in the Navy. She said she may be able to take her sister Susan, 8½, with her. Dorna is a fifth grade pupil at the S.V. Elementary School.

This newspaper agreed to pay the way to Disneyland to the young writer of the best letter telling "Why I Want To Go."

Dorna will leave Tuesday morning on a bus chartered by the County Y folks and will be given tickets good for nine rides of her choice at Disneyland. She will have her lunch paid for, provided she drinks lots of milk with it.

Also a guest of this newspaper is Patty Corle, 9 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Corle, 7928 Barton Drive. She sold five new subscriptions to this newspaper to earn her trip.

The bus will leave from Lawton's Drive-in in La Mesa at 8:15 Tuesday and will return with it's tired-but-happy load at 7 p.m.

MT. MIGUEL OFFICE SET UP AT NEW SCHOOL

The principal's office of the new Mt. Miguel High School moved from Grossmont to the new school last week. Principal Mel Grant, his staff and the custodial staff are also at the new school. A temporary phone has been installed until the switch board can be put in, the number is HO 3-5373.

HIGH SCHOOL BUDGET UP $25 PER PUPIL

A current expenditures budget of $3,204,376 was approved for the 1957-58 school year by the Grossmont Union High School District Trustees, when they met for the budget hearing July 5. $340,000 of the increase totalling $552,000 over last year's current expense budget, was due to an enrollment gain of 1,000 students. Increase in salary schedules accounted for the balance.

The budget cost per pupil is estimated to be $400 compared to $375 for last year. Expenditures per pupil will be held well below the state average, it was reported. In the past five years expenditures at Grossmont have ranged from $64 to $83 below the state average for high school districts.

Capital outlay, reserve funds, repayment on state loan, budget transfers and ending balance, increase the total budget $4,378,787.

The capital outlay increase from $182,000 to $372,000 was explained by Harold Hughes, associate superintendent, to be necessitated by purchase of equipment and furniture for the new Mt. Miguel High School, scheduled to open in September.

Higher Levy

The assessed valuation for the district has not been released (as of last week) but an increase of 6 to 10 million over the 115 million of last year is anticipated. The operation tax levy will increase between 15 and 20 cents per $100.

Opening Uncertain

The Board was informed that the plumber strike will postpone the completion date of the Mt. Miguel High School. The Board submitted alternative plans in case Mt. Miguel did not open on time. These plans were published last week.

Insurance

The Board studied provision of student accident insurance by a plan costing $3.92 per student, insuring $500 medical and $250 dental expenses of students for accidents occurring in all school sponsored classes or activities. A portion of the cost would be borne by students engaged in athletics where risk exposure is greatest.

Driver Training

The Board approved contracts with the Hatch Chevrolet Company and the Farmers Insurance Group Safety Foundation, who provided two new driver training cars (without expense) to the district. The Board expressed appreciation to the two firms for their contribution to further the cause of traffic safety.

Civil Defense

Continuance of Adult Education cooperation with the County Civil Defense Training program was also voted.

County Offers School Site

The Board approved a $550 cost of engineering relocation of Ash Street through Cactus Park, in Lakeside. The donation of the 50 acre high school site by San Diego County was contingent upon the school district assuming the cost of relocation of Ash Street around the site.

Hansen Tells Of $ Multi Million Playground Plan

A multi-million dollar park and playground where all America can come to play and rest is the ultimate development visualized by Fred Hansen on his 1,400 acre La Presa County Water District holdings, he told the Men's Club Friday.

Hansen said that the acquisition of water by the formation of a district in which he was elected chairman last week, culminated 25 years of work to bring the La Presa property with its famed Sweetwater Springs to a point where development was possible.

Fred Hansen revealed that he had offered the County Park Commission forty acres of land near the La Mesa Airport for park use.

The airport is on Jamacha road, four miles due east of the present La Presa airport.

He said that the property was offered the county free and clear with the only stipulation being that the present rugged appearance of the terrain be maintained. A deep canyon runs through the area he said.

"Sewers and water are the keys to development in southern California," Hansen said. "We have those things now. As we develop we will keep our eye on the coming four-day week which will give millions of Americans more time to play. Our development will be geared to rest and play. We proposed to build a sprawling ranchlike hotel-motel property with every conceivable service available. If the guest wants llama milk for breakfast, we'll get it for him."

Hansen said that a section of the property would be set off for budget-vacationers. "We have enough land to care for all income classes," he said.

Speaker this week will be Harry Griffin, local investor who spent several months gathering data on improving Broadway. He will review that material and add some new ideas and how he thinks the project can be accomplished.

The following week Cecil Gunthorp, mayor of the new city of Imperial Beach will be speaker. George Scott is scheduled to address a mixed group September 20.

T. M. Heggland, County Chief Administrator, was guest of the club Friday, said that he would provide a program soon.

Legion Ladies To Help Handicapped

Community cooperation in helping handicapped persons regain a useful place in society is being asked by the American Legion Auxiliary as it continues its work for disabled war veterans, Mrs. Jessie Ball, Rehabilitation Chairman of La Mesa Auxiliary Unit, has announced.

The increasing number of persons suffering physical handicaps as a result of accidents and illness is making rehabilitation of the disabled a problem of growing importance, she pointed out. A community attitude of wanting to help the handicapped, and a feeling of community responsibility for their successful rehabilitation is of great value in this work, she said. The American Legion Auxiliary recently has been named a member of the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, which is working on the vast national problem of rehabilitating the physically handicapped.

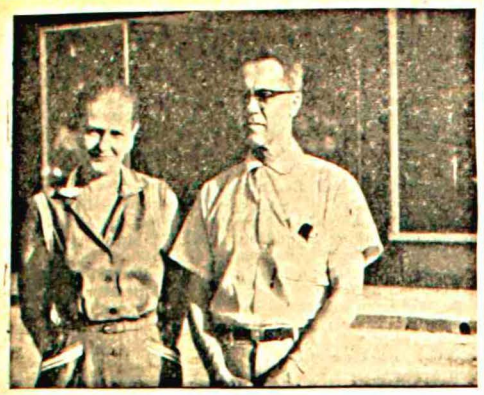
BRUMLEY'S SHOE STORE OPENS



Mr. and Mrs. Dee Brumley are formally opening their shoe store at long last..

A couple of months ago they bought the shoe section of Lane's shoes-men's wear dual addresses at 7763 Broadway. Both Lane and promptly proceeded to fill in their respective stores' inventory. Brumley additionally had a new front designed for his shop and that was completed earlier this week.

The new shop, replenished, remodeled and redecorated is ready to go again and toward that end a gala re-opening event is being conducted this week.

A giant Red Goose will be on hand to represent shoes of that brand name. Free gifts will be given to all visitors.

The Brumleys came to Lemon Grove from Moreland, Oregon and this year, when they left, the newspaper in the town ran a two-column editorial. It read in part . . . "Every once ein a while there comes to every community some quiet, soft-spoken person who seems not to go out of his way to make any changes in his little city but who somehow impresses the community by his own way of living to such an extent that he has made a contribution which will long be remembered. Such a man is Dee Brumley . . ."

Kid's 'Krusade' To Be Held Again

It is time for "Kid's Krusade" again.

Pastor Orval C. Butcher and his Assistant, Derric Johnson, pastor of the Skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church in Monterey Heights, with the 50 mother captains, who keep the "Krusade" on the march for five days each year, are working to make this year's "Krusade" the best yet. The "Krusade" brigade, made up of children organized into teams, under the leadership of Sue Scott Spisak, Donetta Martenson and Ruby Coyle, are in Monterey Heights and Lomita Village this week, contacting each home signing up children for the "Krusade."

The "Kid's Krusade" will open Monday at 9. Each days session will close at 11:45, August 23, at 7 there will be a program and display at the church. Saturday is the big day of the "Krusade." The parade that forms at the church will consist of original floats, for which prizes are offered. The parade route leads thru Lomita Village, ending at the south end of Cardiff Ave., where ice cream is provided for all "Krusaders."

The Vermillions reported to friends that much of the war's ravages may yet be seen but most of the countries are making great strides of repair. They said the trip was a wonderful experience but "Lemon Grove looks best."

Don and Dorothy Barnes, 3510 Foursome Dr., and youngsters Mary, Dennis, and Bobby, returned Sunday night from a week's vacation at Lake Arrowhead with side trips to Santa's Village at Sky Forest and Lone Ranger Ranch at Corriganville. This latter spot is in the Santa Susanna Pass and is a "location" site used in filming episodes of Rin-tin-tin, Gunsmoke and other western shows.

Driving North to visit relatives in Washington are Mrs. Frank Ward of 3452 Trophy Dr. and her daughters, Karen, Joan, and Denise. They left Monday morning, "chauffeured" by Mrs. Ward's father, and accompanied also by Elise Burdick, 14, of 3465 Par. Return date: about Labor Day.

Joe and Irene Chalk, 3477 Par Dr., are proud of their fifth child (fourth son) who on August 3 at Grossmont Hospital weighed in at a husky 8 pounds 11½ ounces!

The David Neptune family of 3402 Trophy Dr. is in Berkeley, Calif., for a two weeks' visit with Helen's parents.

St. Philip's Women Plan Ice Cream Social

The Women's Assembly of St. Philip's Episcopal Church will have an old fashioned ice cream social with homemade cakes on Saturday, August 24 between the hours of 6 p.m. and 9 p.m. The social will be held at the church, located at Palm and Hardy Road. Price will be 50c for adults; children 6 and under 25c.

In charge of the affair is Mrs. John Emerick, general chairman. She will be assisted by the following committees: tickets, Mrs. T. F. Nutter; cakes, Mrs. Betty Seymour Robinson; serving, Mrs. R. E. Lovelace, publicity, Mrs. J. D. Gowin.

Swim Party Planned For Junior's Prospects

The Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors Club plan a swimming party Monday at the Carman Ranch Club for prospective members and their husbands.

Those named as guests so far are Messrs. and Mmes. Jerry Bremen, William Jackson, John Saucier, Mike Riehle, Howard Smith, Louis Stevens, Edward Buckley, Sherman Minard, William Moore, Frank Finney, Jack Chapell and Warren Patterson.

Other interested residents may attend by calling Mrs. Gene Johnson, HO 9-5893 or Mrs. Tom Mitchell, HO 6-1382.

Dog Bite Stops Delivery Boy and Pitcher

Steve Conrad, 8347 Solana St., who delivers a REVIEW route each Thursday will miss it this week.

Steve, 11, had his hand lacerated by his German Shepherd "Silver" Tuesday. Silver got into a fight with the Conrad's older dog, "Dusty" and Steve tried to protect the smaller dog by throwing himself over her. Silver tore Steve's hand open in the melee and the doctor sewed it up with four stitches.

Not only must Steve give up his route for a week but he had to give up his pitching chore for the Encanto Cardinals, his Little League baseball team, too.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Conrad.

Grossmont School Board To Wrestle With Mt. Miguel Opening Problem

Grossmont High School board will meet Monday to decide what to do about the lagging construction schedule on Mt. Miguel High School.

School work has been halted by the plumber's strike and the O. L. Carpenter Construction Co. reported last week that the completion was at least two months behind schedule at that time.

Grossmont board will have three choices, according to Lewis Smith, school superintendent. They may: 1. decide to absorb the 1,400 Mt. Muguel pupils as double session students at Helix until the school's completion; 2. defer the start of school as much as two weeks and pick up the difference during vacation time, or 3. use Mt. Miguel roofand walls for makeshift classrooms and furnish portable toilets, bottled drinking water and portable wash basins.

Smith pointed out that the contractor's reference to completion had to do with the whole plant but the building could be occupied and used by students long before the contractor finished the job.

Shearer To Face Brown On Water Via TV

William K. (Bill) Shearer, Executive Director of the San Diego County Republican Central Committee, will face California's Democratic Attorney General Pat Brown on KFMB-TV, Channel 8, at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

Shearer and a representative of the Democratic Party will question Brown on the California water program and Brown's future political plans.

POST-POLIO PATIENTS NEEDS TO BE STUDIED

A countywide survey to discover the current rehabilitation needs of all post-polio patients will be conducted this month by the San Diego Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The local survey is part of a nationwide project by the National Foundation to compile a roster of polio cases of all ages and degree of disabilityy, regardless of date of onset. The canvass here is to be completed by September 1.

ASSESSMENTS TALL, MANPOWER SHORT, SAYS ASSESSOR

County Assessor John McQuilken this month reported to the Board of Supervisors that there are more than 280,000 parcels of property in the county which by law must be reviewed periodically. He said that the present staff could carry on the review on a ten year cycle. This, he added, was "wholly unrealist."

His records show that personal property assessments for the current year have been increased 26% and the overall assessment totals are up 12.5%.

By classifications:

Land up 11.3% to $296 millions.

Improvements up 9.0% to 563 millions.

Trees & Vine up 5.5% to 3 millions.

Personal property up 26.3% to 179 millions.

Gross total up 12.2% to $1 plus billion.

Reasons For Orange Drop Given

The dropping of orange fruits is a common problem with citrus growers, reports University of California Farm Advisors. Normally, there is a fairly heavy drop of small fruit beginning shortly after the blossoms fall and continuing until the fruit is half an inch or more in diameter. This is nature's way of adjusting the amount of fruit carried by the trees to their environment. Most of the crop often appears to have fallen, when actually a good set of fruit remains. The drop of mature oranges is also of concern, particularly during the warmer season.

Excessive drop may have a number of causes. Among them are lack of moisture or fertility, heavy pruning and sudden changes in temperature and weather. External fruit injury, insect infestation and injurious insect sprays also may promote fruit drop.

In home orchards, the fruit is often left on the trees long after it is mature. There is no better way to store fruit, but the continued maintenance of the old crop reduces the ability of the tree to bear fruit the following year, and in many cases is a cause of reduced yields.

Nitrogen deficiency at the time of fruit set, and moisture deficits, especially at the time the small fruits are on the tree, are of more importance to commercial growers. The orangeworms are responsible for fruit drop as a result of their injury to fruit. Where damage has occurred, crylolite should be applied in the orchard spray.

300 Voices In S.D. Symphony

"Joan of Arc at the Stake", a dramatic oratorio portraying one of the greatest stories in history, will be presented Tuesday, by the San Diego Symphony Orchestra and the 300-voice San Diego Symphony Chorus, all under the direction of Robert Shaw. This will be the last of the current summer series concerts in Balboa Park Bowl. Concert time is 8:30 p.m.

Dorothy McGuire, noted stage and screen actress and co-founder of the La Jolla Playhouse, will be starred in the spectacular production as the Maid of Orleans. She has played the role four times previously; three times with the San Francisco Opera Company both in San Francisco and Los Angeles, and once in concert form last December with the Utah Symphony Orchestra in Salt Lake City.

WASHINGTON SUMMARY
by ED KOTERBA

ATTACK BOOMERANGS

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People got stung in Washington when it made the near-libelous charges against the city's police commissioner . . . Claimed discrimination of the races, but when asked to present documentary evidence, the NAACP backed out.

Now counter-charges have been filed which may spell real trouble for the already-shaky organization.

THE GLUCK 'LEAK'

The man who leaked the secret testimony that boomed ambassador-to-be Maxwell Gluck into national disfavor was none other than Sen. William Fullbright, Democrat of Arkansas.

MILITARY CUTS

Tremendous cuts will continue in military manpower, both regular servicemen and draftees . . . Unessential officers will bear the brunt. Talk is the cuts may reach a quarter-million by the end of the year.

But military spending will be up despite the so-called budget cuts . . . Money will be voted under "deficiency" bills next year.

Military cannot avoid higher spending because of the sharp rise in cost of steel and other materials and labor.

'FRIENDLY' INSECTS

The Agriculture Department is now raising a horde of "friendly" insects at its Moorestown, N. J. lab . . .

The idea is to raise them in large quantities to pray on destructive pests.

AIRLINES WAIL

The airline lobbyists are wailing that the government discriminated by allowing the railroads seven percent increases in freight rates and turning down their bid for a six percent raise . . . Fact is, the airlines are subsidized by millions of dollars in taxpayers' money while the railways are not.

SHORT TAKES

Latest word on expected date of adjournment of Congress: August 24 . . . The published report that President Eisenhower is worth a million dollars is false—it's closer to a half-million.

PRESIDENTIAL TALK

Although 1960 is still quite a way off, you hear talk, talk, talk about the possible presidential candidates.

Democrats — Front runners: Sen. John Kennedy of Mass., Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, and Gov. Robert Meyner of New Jersey.

Kennedy for all practical purposes is already campaigning, though he must first win re-election next year as senator.

Johnson's biding his time, but his adroit handling of the Civil rights debate—avoiding a real filibuster—is a feather in his ten-gallon hat.

As for Meyner, he's getting attention simply by being coy about the whole thing. Of the three, our guess goes to Meyner.

And the Republicans—It's a two-way tussle as of now. Vice President Richard Nixon, the front runner, continues to alienate various factions. His latest was so-called "smear" at Democrats for toning down Civil Rights.

Sen. Bill Knowland of California, though less articulate than Nixon, has more appeal among the "ordinary folks."

Our prediction: Nixon will ascend to the presidency only upon the death of Eisenhower. And Knowland does not stand much of a chance to win the Republican nomination.

McELROY'S STOCKS

Reason for the delay last week in appointing Neil McElroy, the soap official, as Secretary of Defense was his reluctance to dispose of his vast stock holdings.

Charlie Wilson has claimed he himself lost millions of dollars when he had to sell his GM stock to take the Defense post.

CANCER FROM FOOD?

Look for some sensational developments coming out of the investigation into food additives . . . Scientists have reported behind closed doors that several dyes we consume as food coloring produce cancer.

PLEA FOR DOG VACCINATION MADE BY CO. HEALTH OFFICER

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of public health, yesterday advised dog owners in the City of San Diego to have their dogs vaccinated against rabies if they have not already done so.

Owners whose dogs have been vaccinated should refer to the slips they received from their veterinarians to be sure the protection of the vaccine is still in effect, he said.

Investigators are currently making a house to house check for unlicensed dogs. Vaccination against rabies is required by law for a dog license in San Diego.

Dr. Askew also recommended that dog owners throughout the county have their dogs vaccinated against rabies as "a common sense protective measure."

In the first six months of the year, Dr. Askew said, there were 69 cases of animal rabies throughout other parts of California. Only last week a rabid dog bit five persons in Los Angeles, he added.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the parishioners of Saint John of the Cross, the Fiesta Committee, and myself, I wish to extend our sincere appreciation to you for your generous cooperation and assistance with our annual Fiesta and Barbecue.

Again, as in the past, our Fiesta Barbecue was a huge success, which we attribute largely to the warm response of our many friends and neighbors throughout San Diego County.

Thanking you for your generous support and assuring you of our grateful prayers, I remain

Yours Sincerely,
JOHN W. McDONAGH
Rt. Rev. Msgr. John W. McDonaugh, Pastor of St. John of the Cross School.

Grove People At Culligan Convention

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Stephens and two employees of the Culligan Soft Water Service of Lemon Grove are attending the Twelfth Annual National Soft Water Service Convention and Trade Show at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco this week.

Delegates will learn of new ways to condition all water to eliminate scaling of plumbing systems and to provide homes with soft water at the lowest possible cost.

The "bottomless rain barrel" of soft water service was little known a dozen years ago, but today is serving over 6 million people. An estimated 170 million dollars will be spent this year to fully soften water in households in the United States and Canada.

Dimmer View

snatch is put on some of the scores of children they appropriate annually.

Newspapers such as this one, have built up a readership because of fearless reporting. This is necessarily an important part of our American way of life because it fits precisely into the more important function it has had in this specific case . . . that of protecting citizens from government . . . a government, the branch of which may drive by your home, observe you spanking a disobedient child, and, without benefit of trial or hearing, haul the youngsters away.

Democracy was not so intended to permit this, and we shall pit our energy and time against a continuance of the highhanded autocracy upon which this squabble is based.

H. Groth, one of our readers who lives in Campo pleads for help for the poor post office pedestrian.

"Please get a crosswalk at the post office corner — if nothing else," he writes.

Since I have been finally given a choice, It looks like it'll be nothing, Mr. Groth. We've got all the public, and Congressman Utt on our side but we can't even get the post office duffers, nor the guy who owns the property to fill in those chuck-holes and pave the parking strip alongside the road. For all I know, the post-office department is running the rest of the country, too.

Newspapering has sadness as well as joys. This sobering fact was illustrated this week when we spent time this week with members of two families who suffered loss of young people. In both instances we knew and admired the families. Alice Lenox, 20, was associated with this newspaper at the time she became engaged and later married to our then photographer. We shared their happiness as they married and later bore a son. Alice died last week on the first few days of the couple's vacation. She died in an Oregon traffic accident but her husband and 15 month's old son were spared. At the age of 20, I think, is the unhappiest time to leave this valley of tears.

In another tragedy we visited with the parents of little Victoria De Frate, six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest De Frate. Mr. De Frate amid quiet tears, told how he had romped with the little girl before leaving for work that day. She was well and happy, squirmy and cuddlesome as a healthy little six-year-older could be. She was to have her tonsils out before the day was over to be ready for school. She never regained consciousness from the operation and she died.

There must be a reward somewhere for a family's ability to absorb grief and sorrow. Where the young are concerned it is near impossible to rightly say the words of solace we feel.

One of our spies snitched an item from a daily newspaper in which it was reported that a bandit had held up and robbed a supermarket of $10,000 in cash in El Paso. Manager, name of Paul Hendricks, was putting the day's receipts in the safe when the lone bandit took the dough.

Coincidence is that operator of the local supermarket called LG Shopping Center is named Paul Hendricks. If he's commuting to El Paso to manage another store on his off day his feet have more pep in 'em than it appeared the last time I saw him.

HISTORIC—County Clerk "Bud" James swears in new officers of the La Presa County Water District. A water district within a water district (Otay Municipal) La Presa was sanctioned the use of water to which Otay had rights. The total being too small for development of Otay, water rights were relinquished to La Presa.

In the photo are Fred Hansen, chairman of the La Presa board and Joseph Eaton, Sr., vice chairman taking oath of office. Hansen owns approximately half of the four square miles of the newly formed district. —Tappy Foto

So You Don't Have Hayfever

"He's sensitive!"

That's another way of beginning a late summer story that usually starts, "Achoo-oo!"

Yes, it's hay fever time again and one person out of 25 in the United States is sensitive to ragweed pollen and will suffer to some degree from August thru October, depending on what part of the country he inhabits.

This year approximately 150,000 new cases of hay fever will occur in the United States. Although the disturbance has been the butt of jokes ever since it was named "hay fever" more than a century ago, it isn't a laughing matter. He who laughs at it may live to try to sneeze it off.

Here are some good rules for those who do not have hay fever;

1. Don't go out of your way to avoid the victim. His disease is not contagious.

2. Sympathize with him. He is like anyone else who is very ill —he will like sympathy.

3. Don't make fun of his ailment. He may be sensitive in more ways than one. The symptoms of hay fever are very distressing to the patient and often the itching eyes and nose are almost unbearable.

4. Don't stare at the victim if he goes into a paroxysm of sneezing which may occur 14 or 15 times in a space of 30 seconds.

5. Don't make any sarcastic comments about his red nose or red eyes or the fact that he may have to stop at any moment to use his eye drops or take a pill for relief.

6. It's perfectly all right to recommend various harmless, but effective aids that you've heard about for hay fever—that your friend or relative may have used. Chances are, unless it's a new case, the patient has already tried them. But he will appreciate your sympathy and helpful attitude.

7. Be sure to say, in very severe cases of hay fever—especially in new cases—"You must go see your doctor." The doctor can not only prescribe something for relief but in many cases can effect a cure over a period of time.

☆ You can avoid being duped by fake charity drives by contributing only to those whose reputation you know and whose records justify public support. Investigate before you invest. Consult your San Diego Better Business Bureau.

Gophers Endanger Avocado Crop

The importance of gopher control in avocado orchards cannot be over-emphasized says University of California Farm Advisors. Gophers attack both young and old trees, and constant observation of the orchard for signs of gopher activity is required. Irrigated orchards have good cover-crop growth besides the avocado trees which entice the gopher to greener pastures.

Gopher control is important not only from the standpoint of actual damage to the tree, but from irrigation. Runways interfere with proper distribution of water. Cases have been observed where numerous runways were found centered under one tree. Irrigation water from other sections of the orchard was carried through these tunnels to the tree and as a consequence, the tree died from too much water.

Gophers will eat the bark from the roots and trunk resulting frequently in a girdling of the tree below the ground level. Gopher activity is usually evident by mounds of soil which they make. Occasionally new tunnels will be dug without mounds being made. This is done by the filling of old runways with dirt from the newly dug tunnels.

Any tree showing sudden wilting, reduced vigor, or signs of distress may have been injured by gophers. Damage is usually unnoticed until the tree begins to show these symptoms.

Control of gophers may be done by a number of methods; trapping, poisoning, and fumigation. The success of any method depends much upon the grower and his persistence in eliminating the pest from the orchard. A recent bulletin on the control of gophers may be obtained at the Agricultural Extension Service, Bldg. 1, 4005 Rosecrans Street, San Diego 10, telephone CYpress 8-4181, ext. 271.

ALLERGIC TO HUSBAND

Santa Monica, Cal. — Mrs. Virginia H. Miller, of Beverly Hills, testified in divorce court that she was allergic to her husband, Daniel C. Miller, and displayed a rash to prove it. A doctor testified he was called upon to treat Mrs. Miller for what he termed a "diffuse rash" covering her body. He said he concluded her malady stemmed from the "highly nervous state" she appeared to be in since her marriage in 1953.

Telephone Service May Cost More

Telephone bills are going to be higher for some users if the Public Utilities Commission agrees to repricing of services as requested by the Pacific Telephone Co. it was announced this week by local manager William Parker.

Basis for the request is increased wages and taxes, Parker said.

The application does not call for a boost in individual and party line telephone rates.

Under the proposal, calls over the monthly allowance on measured business service would be increased a fraction of a cent in San Diego, Orange County and Los Angeles. The cost of each message over the allowance would go from .04 to .043 cents.

Other items on which increases are sought include service connection and installation charges and rates on person-to-person calls within California. Measured rate business and semi-public extension stations along with telephones served by some private branch exchanges (PBX) would be increased 25 cents a month, or from $1 to $1.25.

Person-to-person rates on calls within the state would increase 5 to 40 cents for the initial three-minute period depending on the distance involved. Rates on station-to-station calls and calls outside California would not be affected.

The proposed connection charges would change from the present $7 to $10 for new resident service; from $10 to $15 on new business service and from $4 to $7 where a telephone is in place but not connected.

Charges for moving and changing subscriber telephones would increase from $4 to $5.

There would also be increased charges for installation of miscellaneous equipment such as bells and long cords.

LOVE THAT NEWSPAPER!

People in California like their newspapers.

This was indicated today when the California Newspaper Publishers Association, Inc., released the official circulation figures of the 450 newspaper members, as reported in the 1957-58 Newspaper Directory, issued annually in July.

The total figure—an all time high—shows that 6,175,236 people subscribe to or buy their daily or weekly newspapers, an increase of 855,996 over 1953 when the circulation total of CPNA members as reported in the Directory of that year came to 5,219,240 subscribers.

A further breakdown of the 6 million figure reveals that 4,234,067 people buy daily newspapers and that 1,932,169 subscribe to their hometown weekly. In addition, 3,326,668 people buy Sunday newspapers.

HORSE MEN START TROPHY-MAKING FIRM

"Starting on a shoestring" has proved to be a success as far as two local men are concerned. Don Lupton of Bancroft Drive, Spring Valley, and Bob Robinson of El Cajon, who have been associated in various horse shows, had an idea they would like to be in a business that had to do with trophies.

Don's garage would be as good a place as any to start, they decided. So in January of this year, they got their tools together and started work on trophy bases. That was the beginning of the Ranch Craft Company. It wasn't long before the garage became too small and they decided to move. The move was made to a store building on Troy Street, next to Curt's Barber Shop.

It wasn't long before the partners were really "going to town," making the trophy bases, custom lamps, redwood signs, custom jewelry, and various other products that go to enhance a western "spread."

In June another partner was added to the firm, Mr. Frank Bettencourt of Lemon Grove, a well known horseman of the area.

But Don informs us that the business must make another move, due to crowded space. In about two weeks the Ranch Craft Company will open offices and a display room at 7872 Broadway, Lemon Grove, above the Dutch Cleaners. The exact date of the grand opening will be announced soon.

But a little bit about the background of the two initial partners: Bob Robinson, who was born and raised in the Fresno, California area, has been interested in horses, and things pertaining to them, since he was "yea-high." At one time he was owner of the Diamond X pack outfit, which operated in the Sierra-Nevada mountains, taking parties on the trails. Bob was guide. Since then he has been quite active in horse circles in the San Diego County area.

Don Lupton, who has lived in the La Mesa-Spring Valley area for the past nine years, is also well known as a horseman. His quarter horse "Tony" has received many awards. Last year he won the "All Around Championship" award for the Southern California Gymkhana Association.

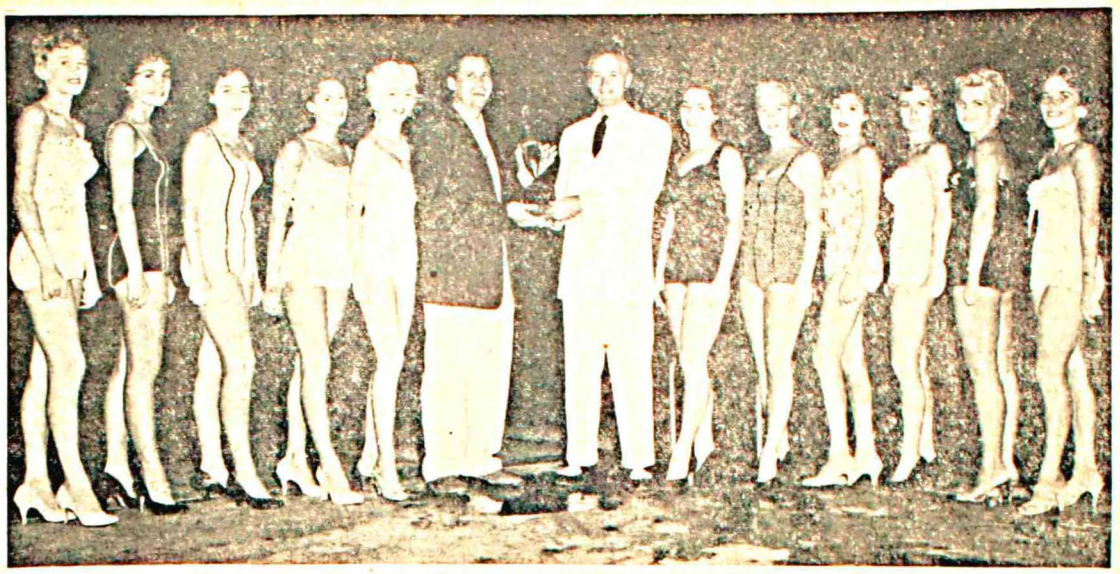
Don said the success of the Ranch Craft Company is due to being able to turn out a variety of western products at competetive prices. All the business is concentrated in one place, in one place, including the engraving of trophies.

GETS OWN TOPSOIL

Newton, Iowa — John Wilson recently built a new home and was facing the problem of getting good topsoil for his lawn. High winds solved the problem for him. The winds moved some of Iowa's best topsoil into roadside ditches and Wilson easily gathered up all he needed for his yard.

ALERT TRUCKER

Portales, N.M.—When a metal lid fell and struck a spark, as a truck driver was filling his tank truck from an 18,000-gallon supply tank, flames burst from the gasoline flowing into the truck. The driver jumped to a valve and cut off the flow. Then he climbed into the cab of the burning truck and drove it a safe distance, jumped out and summoned firemen, who snuffed out the blaze. The driver was unhurt, although a little over heated.



ELEVEN LOVELY MISSES — All aiming to win that coveted Miss Clairmont of '57 crown Saturday night, August 24—pose here with Tom La Vaut, contest general chairman, and Jim Anthony, general manager of Buena Vista Gardens Apartments. The contest, sponsored by the Clairemont Lions Club, will be held at the beautiful Buena Vista swimming pool.

VLM To Host Hawaiian Little League Team

The Aiea Menehune's baseball team from the Iolani School in Honolulu will arrive by plane Monday and start a series of games in this county by playing the winning team from the Vista La Mesa Little League, the B.P.O.E. team, Tuesday at 5:30 on Lester Field. A patio party for both teams and league officials will be held after the game in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom La Nier.

The Vista La Mesa Little League's Father and Son Banquet drew a huge crowd last week. Dick Gorrie, Helix High School baseball coach, was guest speaker and gave the boys some good tips on the game and good sportsmanship. Marty Koenekamp was given the "most valuable player" award.

Wins and losses for the second half of the season were:

'Challenge' To Be Topic Three Times At VLM Church

"Christianity's Challenge" will be the two sermon topic the Rev. Wm. T. Nichols will use for all three morning worship services in Vista La Mesa Christian Church Sunday morning.

The Annual All-Church Picnic will be held in El Monte Park near Lakeside, following the third service. Families will share their baskets and the fellowship together. There will be baseball and other games during the afternoon.

Hospital Auxiliary Notes . . .

The Lemon Grove unit is a major contributor to the popular "Pinkie" program carried on by Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary. "Pinkie" is the little hand puppet — gowned in the same "cheery cherry" worn by the auxiliary's in-hospital volunteers (Pink Ladies)—that is given to each one-to-ten-year-old patient in Grossmont Hospital; compliments of the auxiliary. "Pinkie" is the child's very own.

"Pinkies" are not for sale.

Lemon Grove turned in forty-six "Pinkies" early in July, forty three on August 8, have forty-one now in work—and have taken out seven yards of additional material for future use. Mrs. W. K. Phillips, area chairman, and Mrs. Don Lowe, the area's sewing chairman, are mainly responsible for this production, which they say is really fun.

August 15 marks the second anniversary of the opening of Grossmont Hopital. The hospital's women's auxiliary will help in the observance of this occasion by serving punch and cake to all lobby visitors, from 2 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Philip Mountjoy, hospitality chairman, will provide auxiliary volunteers (Pink Ladies) to act as hostesses.

Grossmont's Hospital Women's Auxiliary's next general meeting will be held October 11, as originally scheduled; but the time and other details may be changed. So many members have asked for another luncheon meeting—the February awards luncheon having proved so enjoyable and so well attended—that the executive board voted at its August meeting to plan a luncheon for October. The board itself will meet twice in advance of the general meeting, on September 13 and October 4.

With their eyes on this year's Harvest Ball, to be held October 5 in El Cortez Hotel Ballroom, the "provisionals" of Grossmont Women's Auxiliary are busily putting in the eight hours of volunteer in-hospital service required of them as a condition of their being presented at the ball. According to Mrs. Richard C. Adams, maternity floor director, auxiliary hospital aides, eleven "provisionals"—all high school senior daughters of auxiliary members—have been trained for service on maternity and have enthusiastically put in more than their required hours. She reported three additional hopefuls as being scheduled for training Friday, last, making a total of fourteen provisionals assigned to maternity floor duty, to date. Invitations to this annual Harvest Ball, of which Mrs. Rupert C. Linley is chairman, will be mailed in a matter of weeks.

NOT SO BRAVE

St. Louis, Mo. — When a man broke into her kitchen, a housewife grabbed her husband's .22 caliber rifle and fired once. The startled thief fled, but the housewife didn't know it. She fainted as she pulled the trigger.
